Re: Waiver of Conflict Letter by Hoover Slovacek LLP

Dear Mr. Choudhri and Ms. Davy:

I understand that a potential mutually beneficial business transaction between Jetall Companies and Ms. Davy has arisen. Presently, this firm represents Renee Davy in various legal matters. In or around 2010, this firm (not me specifically) previously represented Jetall Companies in a separate and distinct legal matter. This firm's representation of Jetall Companies ended in or about late 2011 or early 2012. Although this could present a potential conflict of interest situation, it is my understanding that an adversarial relationship between Jetall Companies and Ms. Davy does not now exist but that, if one develops through this matter, you understand that we would have to withdraw from our representation with respect to this particular matter.

Please execute this letter where indicated below representing that: (i) you consent to this firm's representation of Renee Davy in this matter; (ii) you waive any existing or potential conflict of interest based upon our prior representation of Jetall Companies and current representation of Renee Davy; and (iii), if at any time upon either of you requests or at our request, anyone feels uncomfortable with respect to our representation of Renee Davy in this matter, we will withdraw from our representation in this matter and cease representing Renee Davy with respect to this particular matter.

If the terms of this letter are acceptable to you, please sign this letter below and return this letter to me via fax or email. If either of you have any questions or concerns, please contact me.

Sincerely,

HOOVER SLOVACEK LLP

T. Michael Ballases
